left it to his son Rowland.

P. 577 Earliest reference found to Roland Savage was in 1666 when he was given a headright in a pat of Serethey Settlement.

1717 Roland Savage & wife Mary left his Matchipungo Plantation,  $\frac{1}{3}$  to each of his sons Richard, Robert & John.

1739. Richard Savage's Part - he left to his son Francis and in 1778 he (wife Rose) left him 160 acres home plantation to his son Richard. He later died intestate leaving a daughter Anne & sons James & Francis and in 1810 Anne sold her interest to her brothers who divided the land between themselves, 1820 James sold his part to his uncle Francis Savage Sr., and the next year a commissioner sold Francis' pt to the same buyer. He died leaving a daughter Elizabeth C. Savage as his heir and she married George Smith.

Va. Eastern Shore p. 592

1717 Rich. Garrison left 4400<sup>a</sup> to his wife Rose for life + then to his son Jonathan. It is believed that Rose lived through a long life after marrying Francis Savage, as in 1759 the Savages sold as 4400<sup>a</sup> to Jonathan Gar., charging him £ 200 for the life int of his mother

In 1866 John B. Smith offered it for sale by a long ad.; among other facts given by him he stated:

The mansion house is large + commodious + contains upward of 20 rooms, with every accommodation to please. The most fastidious, a most beautiful garden + lawn are attached. A fine school room + excellent ice house stand in the yd. Ice pond very convenient. Two greenhouses

West Lane

Americana Illustrated. P. 152

Mr Shirley observes that "the Wests are remarkable, not so much for the antiquity of the family, as for the early period at which they attained the honor of peerage. Sir Leonard West, the first recorded ancestor, died in the seventeenth year of the reign of Edward II, having married the heiress of Cantilupe and thus became connected with Sussex. Few families of the time had broader lands." The name West is the most popular one of all the compass points which have also become name designations. Its popularity is easily shown. The many records of early England, from the name has a good representation in all of them, from all sides of England.
